SIMPLE RESOLUTION.

By Senator Skinner:
Hon. Jno. G. Willacy, President Pro Tem. of the Senate:

On Monday, May 1, 1905, beginning at 4 o'clock p. m., the citizens of Austin entertained the members and employes of the Twenty-ninth Legislature and their families and friends with a barbecue, picnic, theatrical performance and old fashioned dance. The barbecue was most delicious, the outing most enjoyable, the public speaking most unique, the theatrical performance up to date and the dancing most delightful to those who participated and those who looked on, but above and overshadowing all else was the unstinted and cordial greeting and hospitality of the good people of Austin dispensed on this occasion by that prince of hosts, Colonel Jno. L. Peeler, and his able corps of assistants; therefore,

Resolved, That the Senate express to our hosts on the occasion above mentioned our most sincere appreciation of their hospitality and that we thank them for a most delightful afternoon and evening.
